Reminders...

- ✓ Behavior calendar signed By Monday
- ✓ Spirit Day every Friday

English/Language Arts/Reading: In ELAR, we will be spiraling our learning and reviewing all genres in order to get ready for our STAAR test.

We will continue writing poetry during writing and then transition into research on an insect.

Math: In math we will be wrapping up Topic 11 and beginning Topic 12: Two-Dimensional Shapes. Students will classify figures by attributes and properties, including using graphic organizers to classify the figures.

Science: In Science, we will be diving into life cycles, inherited traits, and learned behavior.

Social Studies: In Social Studies we will be starting our new unit titled Expansion and Change: America in the 19th Century. This unit will take us from the Louisiana Purchase up to the Civil War.
